

WESTERN PENNSYLVANIA CORVAIR CLUB
2018 CORSA CONVENTION UPDATE 2/1/2018
WWW.CORVAIRPITTSBURGH.COM

Fellow Corvair enthusiasts,

Numbers, numbers, numbers.

As of today; 198 rooms reserved at the host hotel, the DoubleTree, Greentree, PA
Approximate 778 corvair car raffle tickets sold, 315 on-line.

And 171 days till the convention.

But who's counting!!

A lot of the convention registration work is done. It will go live in the Communique, and on the CORSA website around April, 3. This is later than usual, but the convention is later than previous ones. (Late July) www.corvairpittsburgh.com website has been updated. Please check out the "Tour Pittsburgh" tab. These are some of the places, and sites that you can visit with the "On your own, self-guided tour" bus drop-offs. The website also has the schedule for the week's events, and meetings.

Rick Beatie has the Rally route almost completed, and plans to practice it in early May.

Jonnie and I have been busy driving the roads trying to put a good route together for the Economy Run.

We still haven't nailed down a location for Saturdays Car Display. But we have been talking to Mike Robinson of VisitPittsburgh, and the city director of special events. Keep your fingers crossed for a nice scenic view.

Reservations have been made with the Gateway Clipper fleet for a dinner cruise on Tuesday, July, 24, and with the Pittsburgh Pirates for a baseball game on the night of Thursday, July, 26.

As we get closer to the convention we are planning to have a "sign up" list, on line and at WPCC meetings for those who are wanting to help. It won't matter if it's an hour or two, or all week long, WPCC members or not, we will need all hands-on deck.

The raffle car ticket sales are coming along nicely. We plan to take it to the upcoming events; Helen, Georgia corvair meet; the grand opening of the Corvair Preservation Fund's, corvair museum in Decatur, Illinois; the Recall corvair meet in Syracuse, New York; and the Pittsburgh Grand Prix, along with many local car shows and cruises this coming year.

As always keep informed at WWW.CORVAIRPITTSBURGH.COM.

Thank you,

Jim Weppelman
