THE EDITOR'S DESK

By Dave McChesney

No! It's not mine. I got it from "Clip Art!"

The past year has certainly been an eventful one. Worldwide we've dealt with, and at times it seems, have had a losing hand with the Covid 19 Pandemic. Here in the US we've had a contentious election that continues to make headlines. Perhaps the best thing about either situation is the fodder they create for late night television hosts/comedians.

The Pandemic effectively put the brakes on most of our club activities, and it looks like the Corona Virus will strike once more. As we moved into November, and as the number of cases mounted and more restrictions were put in place, Inland Northwest Corvair Club board members connected and decided it would be best if we cancelled our scheduled Christmas/Holiday party. With the restrictions and limits currently in place, it's quite possible we would not be able to have it at the planned location anyway. Here's hoping that things settle down and that we can celebrate the Holidays we each other next year.

Most of you know I'm a member of Spokane Authors and Self-Publishers. There I serve a number of roles, similar to what I do for the INCC, including editing the group's newsletter. Since we've been unable to meet in person, and in December meet to share excerpts from our work, we invited members to contribute something to the December edition of SASP NEWS. If you would care to read any of the stories, you can find the newsletter at www.spokaneauthors.org Click on "Newsletters" along the left side of the page and then select the month. (December 2020.)

Typically when putting a newsletter together, whether it is our own REAR ENGINE REVIEW or SASP NEWS, I try to limit the length to know more than eight pages plus a cover sheet. Over the years I've found a total of five sheets of paper can be mailed with a single postage stamp. Today most copies of the newsletters go via e-mail or are posted to a web-site. Postage expenses are not that big of a concern. Thus it's not that big a deal to send out an expanded edition, one that might take additional postage to send via USPS.

So as I prepare the December issue of the REAR ENGINE REVIEW, I'm thinking to include a list of SASP members' books that are available on Amazon, just in case anyone is looking for Christmas/Holiday gifts, etc. (The list is also available on the SASP web-site under "News.") If you are local to the Inland Northwest, it possible that some of the listed books are also available in local stores.

I'm always open to input for the REAR ENGINE REVIEW. We can use personal Corvair stories, maintenance hints and tips, pictures, recipes, or information of a general nature. If you go to and participate in a car show or other automotive hobby related event, help me get the news in the REAR ENGINE REVIEW. Snap a pic or two and send them along with brief note. I'll get it in the next REAR ENGINE REVIEW

IT'S NEVER TOO LATE!

If you have pictures or other information about Corvair or automotive events from the past, feel free to forward. I'll do my best to include them, regardless of how long ago the activity occurred.

CLUB BUSINESS CARDS

Contact INLAND NORTHWEST CORVAIR CLUB Web-master Dave Fender for business cards with current club logo on them. They have a place where you can add your contact information. Return address labels might be small enough to fit in the area provided.

The front of the card looks like this.

TREASURER'S REPORT

Our Treasurer's Report is sent monthly to Inland Northwest Club members only, via e-mail and USPS. (No Treasurer's Report or roster is being sent this month as there has been little or no change since last time)
