THE EDITOR'S DESK

By Dave McChesney

My 1960 Corvair, a 1/25 scale, die-cast model

For the past three months we have had some sort of club activity. It's great to be active once again and to see fellow club members. At the same time, turn out for some of these activities has seemed a little sparse. It would have been great to have seen more familiar faces at a couple of them. Maybe as we distance ourselves from the pandemic, participation will increase. At this point in time I haven't been informed of any July events, but if I am, I'll be sure to pass the news along.

As we enter the second half of the year, we bid "farewell" to longtime INCC member Rick Neet, who has decided not to continue with the club.

While I'm thinking of it, I'd like to pass along a couple of suggestions to editors of other Corvair Club/CORSA Chapter newsletters...

First, when you e-mail newsletters out, send them BCC. While we can assume the typical Corvair Club member/Corvair owner is honest, it's possible our newsletters might end up outside of our community. I happen to share the Rear Engine Review with family, friends, former co-workers, high school classmates, and more. None of us want unauthorized knowledge or use of our e-address. Let's help protect the privacy of our club members.

Secondly, you might want to think about sending your newsletter out in two different e-mail batches. Send the first to club members only. In this one you can include updated rosters, treasurer's reports and other information that only club members need to know. The second batch should include the newsletter only, and can go to other Corvair Clubs, Corsa Chapters, and so on.

Splitting newsletter e-mailing up will also solve another potential problem. You send the latest newsletter out, and one of your members has a question or something to add. This individual selects, "Reply All" when responding. In most all cases that reply and any ensuing discussions are of interest to members of that club or Chapter only. The wider Corvair community probably doesn't care and all this e-mail exchange does is clog up our in boxes.

If anyone is wondering, I've done it this way for several years. I e-mail the REAR ENGINE REVIEW, plus a copy of our roster and an update Treasurer's report to Inland Northwest Corvair Club members only. Then I e-mail the newsletter only to other Corvair Clubs, CORSA Chapters, and so on. For the handful of copies that still go via USPS, those to our members have the extra information included. Those that go elsewhere do not.

As always, I'm open to and looking for inputs for our newsletter. Thank you to those who occasionally respond and provide me with material to include in the REAR ENGINE REVIEW.

IT'S NEVER TOO LATE!

If you have pictures or other information about Corvair or automotive events from the past, feel free to forward. I'll do my best to include them, regardless of how long ago the activity occurred.

CLUB BUSINESS CARDS

Contact INLAND NORTHWEST CORVAIR CLUB member Dave Fender for business cards with current club logo on them. They have a place where you can add your contact information. The extra small return address labels might be ideal for this.

The front of the card looks like this.

CAR D'LANE

REAR ENGINE REVIEW

Having been cancelled in 2020 due to the Corona Virus/Covid Pandemic, this annual event returned to the streets of Coeur d'Alene, Idaho. It kicked off with a street cruise on Friday night and resumed with a car show on local streets on Saturday. Several Inland Northwest Corvair Club members participated. (We have not received word of exactly who was there, or who took part in what aspect of the event.

After the show ended, many of those who had taken part, as well as others who had not been there, congregated at the Nicol's residence in Post Falls. There we enjoyed hamburgers, hotdogs, and all the fixings associated with the typical back yard barbeque.

Hanging out on Craig's patio. (When the picture was taken, someone complained that I always seem to take photos when everyone is eating.

Those who stopped by Craig and Jan's place included John and Heather Vujovich, Tom and Kathy Schager, Dave and Sue Fender, Dave Raezer, and Dave McChesney. Also joining in were an acquaintance of Craig, along with his daughter.
