I wonder is Santa is bringing me any Corvair parts?

From the Editor.....

Just a reminder that our December meeting includes officer elections, as well as our annual “Toy and Memorabilia” display. Sort of a “show and tell” for the car enthusiast. Bring in something cool! It does not have to be Corvair related, or even a toy. Don’t worry that you may have brought the same item in before, we have a lot of new members who may not have seen your treasures.

Meetings lately have been short as there is no pressing business. We should plan on hanging around a bit to talk about cars and other items. That should be the focus of the meeting. And if you have any ideas for future club activities, they are more than welcome.

One other item, during winter months, check your emails the day of the meeting. Bad weather could cause cancellation.

Anyone planning on going to Wisconsin for the 2023 CORSA Convention?

Corvair Preservation Foundation Museum gets new name and new recognition

The Corvair Preservation (CFP) Museum, which has been in operation since 2016 and located in Glenarm, Illinois, on the historic Route 66, has been officially recognized by General Motors as the official Corvair museum for North America.

Glenarm, IL - The Corvair Preservation (CFP) Museum, which has been in operation since 2016 and located in Glenarm, Illinois, on the historic Route 66, has been officially recognized by General Motors as the official Corvair museum for North America. "It is with great joy and genuine excitement that we announce the official new name of our 'National Corvair Museum,' which has just been approved by General Motors," said Mike Hall, CPF President and Museum Curator. "We look forward to a long and productive partnership with General Motors as Corvair will now have a national home for its display of historical vehicles, engines, artifacts as well as containing an archive for the history of this air-cooled wonder," Hall added. The CPF will be undergoing many changes in the coming months, in preparation for the new branding, including signage to reflect the "National Corvair Museum" name. The facility is located at 10041 Palm Rd. (Old Route 66) in Glenarm, Illinois. The museum will also be hosting events throughout the year to celebrate, preserve, and tell the story of the Corvair for future generations of classic car enthusiasts. To book a tour of the National Corvair Museum, please contact Mike Hall, Curator, at (217) 494-7105 or mrhvair@aol.com.
