THE EDITOR's DESK

By Dave McChesney

Another painting I did several years ago. If you look closely, there is a snow covered Corvair in front of the barn.

Last month we mentioned that Roger was still looking for a place where we could have our annual Christmas/Holiday gathering. He offered us several choices and those of us who made our opinions known chose Poole's Public House. It's at the corner of Hastings and Ruby Rd., just east of Mead High School. For those referencing based on Division St., it's to the west of the corner of Division and Hastings. From what Roger has said about the place, it sounds like we can all eat our fill there.

I was asked about some sort of monetary incentive for those who chose to attend. At times in the past, that has proved to be a complicated evolution, so I believe the best way is to simply credit everyone who attends with a year's worth of dues. So that's what we'll do. If we see you there, your dues will be extended by 12 months. If you are currently behind in dues, you will be credited with having paid for 2024.

As always, I look forward to any submissions you may have for our newsletter, as well as suggestions for activities and events we all can participate in.

IT'S NEVER TOO LATE!

If you have pictures or other information about Corvair or automotive events from the past, feel free to forward. I'll do my best to include them, regardless of how long ago the activity occurred.

I've reworked them a little, and now the front looks something like this. The back now has contact information as well as space for members to include their own. It looks something like this.

Poole's Public House

12310 N. Ruby rd. North Spokane

The food is excellent. They have a spot off the main part of the restaurant to seat a large group. My golf team has their after the season banquet there every year.

Come hungry because everything on the menu is great! Did I mention all their burgers are half pounders?

This location was agreed on by a consensus of members who responded.

Attending members will be credited with a year's worth of dues.

Hope to see you all there.
