THE EDITOR's DESK

By Dave McChesney

From at least ten years ago. Tim, my '62 Rampside in the driveway. It may be the Fourth of July, with the flag flying from the antenna.

I hope everyone had a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. I also hope we are ready to have an eventful and fun filled year.

It was a nice surprise to see all the folks show up for our Christmas dinner. I think we were happy with the location, the food and the service. If there was a downside, it was the noise. It wasn't overbearing, but loud enough to make hearing difficult from one end of the table to the other.

Now it's time to get together and figure out our events and plans for 2024. I'm not sure we would want to do anything this month, but something in February would be a good idea. Speaking of February, once again the Inland Northwest Car Club Council will be holding their annual Show-No-Shine event towards the end of that month. Maybe this year a number of our members will attend, allowing us to have our own table and making ourselves more widely known in the Spokane area car club culture.

Meanwhile, feel free to send pictures, articles, and opinions for inclusion in the REAR ENGINE REVIEW.

RECENT EVENTS

INCC CHRISTMAS CELEBRATION DINNER

Sunday, December 17th saw several members of the Inland Northwest Corvair Club Converge on Poole's Public House just north of Spokane. We had come together to celebrate the Holiday Season and the pleasure of each other's company.

Joining in were Barry and Denice Myers, Mark and Kim Connelley, John and Heather Vujovich, Craig and Jan Nicol, Tom and Kathy Schager, Cody and Taylar Hurley, Bob and Maggie Sherman, Roger and Judy Becker, Dave and Sue Fender, Dave Raezer, and Dave McChesney,

Poole's Public house was everything Roger said it was. We had plenty of room and the food was delicious and plentiful. In addition, the service was great. If there was a downside, the place was noisy, making it hard to hear what was being said at the end of the table.

Craig and Jan brought everyone a Christmas Card along with a short family newsletter. The envelopes were numbered and those were used to draw for a small number of jars of homemade jams and jellies.

Roger, acting as host, also obtained a few door prizes and drew from a second set of numbers to determine the winners of these items.

It was great to see so many turn out for this event. Welcome back to Cody Hurley, and especially welcome to Taylar. Everyone who attended has had their membership extended by a year.

(Your reporter/editor apologizes for not obtaining more photographs of the event.)

By now, this schedule may or may not be current. Many of these cruise nites may be on hold over the winter. If planning to go, it might be a good idea to check and see it is a go. If you do go to one, contact fellow INCC members and invite them along. Please send pictures and/or write-ups for our newsletter.
