PRESIDENT'S PONDERINGS

Submitted by Rex Harrison
PPCC President

As many of you will know, Kristal and I are heading back to Australia this December (flying out on the 21st), so this will be my final words as President. It is perhaps appropriate that this message reaches you the week of thanksgiving, as I have much to be thankful for being part of the club, and for the past year President.

Firstly, thanks for the friendship. As I said when I nominated for the position at last year's Christmas party, this is a club about cars, but the cars are nothing without the people. So for all the club members who extended the hand of friendship, whether at the Tri-State, the monthly meetings or wherever – thank you. I especially am thankful for the board this year, and the guidance and advice they were able to provide, drawing on their long association with the club.

Secondly, thanks for the knowledge I have gained. While it seemed that every time I fixed our Corvair it led to another thing that didn't work, it did provide me the opportunity to grow my skills (as Eric Idle would say, you have to look on the bright side of life). I can say now that I've dropped a drivetrain and swapped out a transmission (made immeasurably easier by the use of the club jack adapter!). I've learnt more about carburettors than I ever wanted to know, especially the relationship between mixture and timing at altitude (give me electronics any day!).

Finally, thanks for getting me out of the house (and this is probably equally shared with Kristal). Without the Corvair, would I have gone to Deckers for lunch during the Fall cruise? Probably not. Left to my own devices, would I have decided to drive a 60 year old car to and from there, in the process driving at 8500' elevation? Definitely not! (for comparison Australia's largest hill is only 7300'). I'd have probably spent my weekends in the garage, running around the suburb and that's about it.

So as Kristal and I continue to pare down our possessions for the relocation to the southern hemisphere (we are down to only two cars now!), we hope that you can pause amongst the festivities (and the black Friday sales) to share a moment with your families. Looking forward to catching everyone at the Christmas party!

It's almost time

Submitted By
Jerry Peevyhouse

It's hard to believe that 2024 is almost over.

Thanksgiving this year is really late, so it's a quick 4 week turn around after that till Christmas. Can you believe it? We've already had our "winter" snow blast (still have a ton of snow in our north facing back yard) and it's not even winter.

You need to mark Dec. 21st on your calendar, when we celebrate the start of winter with our shortest day. 4:30 pm sunsets are a bummer for me so I'll be glad that every day after that will get longer. But at least the weather inside my garage is decent enough for me to do my winter checks of my car to get it ready for next year's events. Car up on all fours now to check and lube suspension, plus check everything underneath. Making sure all the bolts are tight and no leaks. Plus, it's oil change time.

The exciting thing though for me is finally I'm getting my original seat covers (not in the best of shape) replaced. Just like the old saying of "how do you eat an elephant?," in the case of getting my upholstery updated, it's been a case of a little at a time. Learning how to be patient 😊. Had to stretch out the purchase of all the pieces and the cost of having the work done on the seats by a professional. Could have saved a ton of money if I did it myself, but that's something I don't feel comfortable tackling. No hog rings for me, just bacon please. 😊.

Hope everyone has a happy Thanksgiving and a very Merry Christmas. Most of all, hoping for a healthy new year so that we can get our cars out and enjoy them.

Leaving you with a couple of lesser-known fun holidays in December.

Dec. 13th National Violin Day

Dec. 16th Underdog Day

Dec. 17th Wright Brothers Day

Hopefully we'll see you at our Christmas Party on Dec. 7th. Don't forget the Toys for Tots gift(s). It's a great cause. Plus, we'll have a special presentation you won't want to miss.

Enjoy the journey,

Jerry

Kristal has volunteered to continue to be newsletter editor (yay!) The club has decided to waive her fees for next year. Please note - the timeline may not be as firm as it was these last couple of years, due to time differences, and shift work. And as always, any suggestions will be received with thanks.

Please note - there will be no Drip Line next month, unless you get me your photos of the Christmas party and yearly closing remarks before 13 Dec...

Is anyone thinking of going to National Convention next year? Tony (probably), maybe Mike, maybe Jerry, but he won't drive.

Tri-State – host hotel is the Days Inn (719) 497 8080. Information is up on the RMC website for registrations, t-shirts, banquet reservations (around $50 pp). Hotel reservations are now open. Car show will be downtown Trinidad – short walk/2 min drive from the hotel.

Randy was contacted by Nathan from Bonneville club who is looking to revamp the club. Maybe invite him to a board meeting – Jerry will contact him.

50/50 - $18 won by Tegan, $17 to the club

Meeting closed at 1006hrs.

EVERYONE IS ESSENTIALBy Kathy Green
Membership Chair

If you've been with PPCC for very long, you're aware that we have a strong core of members who step up every year to take leadership positions. Believe it or not, sometimes that core of members would love to have some "new blood", and as members it seems we all should want some new ideas to help move the club forward.

We've been very fortunate that Rex and Kristal Harrison stepped up to fill some big needs when they did. For those who aren't aware, Kristal has served as our Secretary and Newsletter Editor for the past two years, and Rex has been our fearless leader as President this entire year. We are very grateful that they saw a need and chose to fill it.

Well, Rex and Kristal will be heading back "down under" in January (and they will be sorely missed), so we find ourselves again in need of some who will step up. Technically all board positions are open every year. Vacancies we know that we will have are President and Secretary. Chris Kimberly has also asked for a break from Activities planning, and will be stepping down from that very important appointed position. Our Newsletter Editor position will also be open.

So.....please consider if YOU could fill one of these important positions. Sure, the same core group of individuals can step up again, but rather than just playing "musical leadership", think about what YOU can do for PPCC. Contact any Board member for information about positions or to indicate your interest. Which chair can YOU fill?

OUR DUE DATE IS RAPIDLY APPROACHING!

By Kathy Green
Membership Chair

So, did I grab your attention? I hope I did. And, I guess I misspoke—Our DUES date is approaching! It's time to start looking forward to 2025, and that looking forward includes asking that you consider renewing your Club Membership for 2025.

Dues for all member are $26 to cover processing fees for PayPal, and to help cover the cost of gas for taking checks/ cash to the bank. You can plan to pay at our October, November or December meeting if you'd like, or you can send your check for $26 made payable to PPCC to: Treasurer, Pikes Peak Corvair Club, P.O. Box 15034, Colorado Springs, Colorado 80935. If you want to save a stamp and an envelope, you may follow this link to our website where you can pay online. We'd love to have all memberships updated before the February 15, 2025, so the 2024 budget year can be wrapped up.

CORSA membership is not a prerequisite for membership in the PPCC. If interested in membership with the national organization, information can be found on CORSA's website at: <http://www.corvair.org>

We don't take your membership in this Club for granted, and are deeply appreciative of the support every member provides in being able to keep the Corvair out in front of the public to enjoy. So, thank you all for all you do, and now go renew today! Don't wait!

DRIP QUIPS
