

Pictures from the CORSA Convention

Charley Biddle

CCE member Andy Allen, who recently moved to Holland, Michigan, attended the 2025 CORSA Convention in San Luis Obispo, California. Andy is now a member of West Michigan Corvair Club, based near Grand Rapids. He is also still a member of CCE. As a nearby newsletter editor, I am on the WMCC email list. I get a monthly copy of their newsletter.

Andy is an avid photographer. He sent 74 pictures from the convention back to WMCC. Since I am on their email list, I received these pictures also. Andy did not drive a Corvair out there; he flew into San Francisco and rented a car to get to San Luis Obispo. The convention looked great, with bright sunny weather.

Andy attended most of the events. Here are some of his pictures.
