Editor's thoughts.....

Summer was really hot, missed a lot of cruises and events. But then September and October were great cruising weather and I got a lot done both working on the Corvairs and work around the house. As I write this, I have 6 inches of snow outside and some more coming.

If anyone has any winter projects going on, let me know. Always looking for some input for the newsletter.

Pat Pilon gets into the spirit of Halloween with his Greenbrier.

Coming soon from Oxford diecast an HO scale Amblewagon. They already have a Greenbrier and an early model coupe available, this will be their next Corvair offering. You will not find these at Wal Mart, only at certain hobby shops, ebay, or directly from the Oxford diecast website.
