

Central Virginia Corvair Club

And guests are invited to a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to tour “behind the scenes” at the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts. Wear your Fit Bits! Lots of walking, but use of the stairs will be kept to a minimum.

The qualified guest will arrive at the Museum at 9 a.m. and park on the upper level of the Museum’s parking deck (sun or shade available). Once assembled, the group will walk to the south wing security entrance to register. A security escort will accompany the tour as the hidden halls and mechanical spaces that serve this wonderful art gallery are visited. Corvair friends who only want to tour the museum should arrive around 10:00 a.m. – museum opening.

When the main gallery opens at 10 a.m., the tour will sign out of the restricted spaces and enjoy the art. Mike DeJong will act as a guide for as long as folks are interested. When the light is right for taking photographs, the north wing motor court will be available for artsy pictures.

The Best Café and Amuse Restaurant are available for dining indoors. If weather is decent, one (or more) can picnic on the grounds. If the weather is inclement, it is possible that one of the private dining rooms may be made available for the Club’s use.

Please join the Central Virginia Corvair Club for a day of art and fun!

Saturday, November 5, 2016.

