SeeMore-in a week or so SeeMore and the trailer will be moved to its winter home at Duane Hayes in Peyton.
Show season? Where will SeeMore go? Those plans are in the works.

The Peevyhouse's are buying the Feasel's convertible.

No Old Business

New Business-Update on Christmas Party. Meal will be family-style. Still working on the details of the meal. Making arrangements for Toys for Tots bins. RSVPs are coming in.

A short meeting will be held at Christmas party for Board elections. Need nominations to Jerry. If anyone has someone to nominate, check with them first, to see if they will accept the nomination and be willing to fill the responsibilities of the position if elected.
Secretary position is open for next year.

RMC will be hosting the 2022 Tri-State. They have selected Glenwood Springs, CO May 20-22, 2022. Host hotel is the Best Western. Banquet will be at Hotel Colorado. Was a discussion on concern for the weather that time of year at that location.

PPCC is hosting the 2023 Tri-State, which will need to be announced at RMC's Tri-State. Need to get the ball rolling. Salida, Manitou Springs, Colorado Springs were suggested. Need a chairperson first.

Rick mentioned that CNM had a website set up for their Tri-State. It was used for registration, banquet reservations, etc. CNM is willing to share that website with RMC and PPCC for their Tri-States.

Tri-State door prizes and awards for PPCC members.
The Green's and Pearce's won a one-night stay at the host hotel.
The Anderson's won a PU model.
The Peevyhouse's won chocolate.
Rick Beets and Phil DeGroot won baskets of little cars.
Guest speaker, Harrison Schmitt, a former NASA astronaut who walked on the moon, tossed trinkets to the crowded. Keithann caught one.
