

Bylaws Of The Rocky Mountain CORSA Corvair Club

ARTICLE I. – ORGANIZATION

SECTION 1. Name: The name of the Club is the Rocky Mountain CORSA Corvair Club, Inc., herein called the "RMC", or the "Club".

SECTION 2. Club Affiliation: Rocky Mountain CORSA Corvair Club is a chartered chapter (#802) of the Corvair Society of America (CORSA) and is registered as a Nonprofit Corporation with the State of Colorado under ID #19871263551 [CORVAIR SOCIETY OF AMERICA (ROCKY MOUNTAIN CHAPTER)]

SECTION 3. Emblem: The Club emblem shall be:

SECTION 4. Website: <http://www.rockymountaincorsa.org>

SECTION 5. Newsletter/Communication: Formal communications with the membership will be by means of the monthly Club newsletter entitled The Denvair News.

ARTICLE II - PURPOSE

The purpose of the RMC is to encourage the preservation, restoration, and enjoyment of all Corvair cars, trucks, and related vehicles.

ARTICLE III - MEMBERSHIP

SECTION 1. Classes of Membership: Any person of good character having an interest in Corvairs is eligible for recommendation for membership. A person need not own a Corvair in order to qualify as a member. Transfer of membership is not approved.

- A. Active Membership: Membership, as the word is used herein, shall be limited to those persons who have paid their dues in accordance with Section 3, below. The active membership shall include the primary member, his/her spouse/partner, and immediate family members of their household less than 18 years of age.
- B. Lifetime Membership: Any person who has commended him/herself to Club esteem may be provided a lifetime membership when nominated by a member of the Club and approved by 2/3 majority of the members present. Lifetime members shall have dues waived, shall receive a subscription to the newsletter, shall have the right to vote, but shall not hold office.

SECTION 2. Eligibility of Membership: As a supporting, incorporated chapter of the Corvair Society of America (CORSAs), RMC members are encouraged to join CORSAs, but are not required to be members of the national organization to be eligible for membership in the RMC.

SECTION 3. Dues: The annual dues shall be determined by the Board of Directors, and reviewed each year. Dues shall be paid by the member and collected by the Treasurer, for a period of one year, each January.

To maintain member status, one must pay annual dues in accordance with the Standing Rules and General Policies.

SECTION 4. Code of Conduct: Any problem which involved the RMC should be brought to the attention of the President of the RMC.

Misuse of the RMC website, Facebook page, RMC List email distribution, Club emblem, or branding will not be tolerated, and may result in termination of membership privileges.

The Club membership roster will be provided to members, and that information is not to be distributed outside of our membership. Club members may use the Club roster for personal and Club related purposes only.

SECTION 5. Termination: Any member may be considered for termination by a majority vote of the Officers of the RMC, for any action determined not to be in the best interest of the RMC.

The Board of Directors shall have the authority to refuse or revoke membership for just cause, based on an approved recommendation by the Officers of the RMC. Dues and fees are non-refundable to terminated members.

SECTION 6. Resignation: Any member may resign by submitting a letter of resignation to any member of the RMC Board of Directors. His/her resignation is effective upon receipt. Dues and fees are non-refundable.

ARTICLE IV - OFFICERS

SECTION 1. Officers: The elected Officers of the RMC shall be: President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer.

A member elected to the position of President or Vice President shall hold that position for no more than three consecutive one-year terms.

Any Officer can be removed from office by a majority vote of the membership, when it is in the best interest of the Club.

Any Officer can resign by giving notice to all Officers.

SECTION 2. Election: A call for volunteers to serve as Officers and board members will be announced at the October meeting. Nominations for Officers and board members shall be submitted and accepted to the ballot during the November meeting.

Only members shall be entitled to submit a nomination. No person shall be a candidate for an office, or Board position, unless they have been a member of the RMC for at least one year. This requirement can be waived by the Board. Only members over the age of 18 years of age shall be entitled to volunteer for a position, or submit a nomination.

Officers will be elected by majority vote of the members present at the December meeting, and will take office on January 1. If there are only two candidates on the ballot, and there is a tie in the voting, the winner will be decided by a coin toss. If no nominations are received for an office, or Board position, the Board of Directors may select a candidate to fill the position.

Each officer will serve for one year, or until his/her successor is elected, except for the office of Vice President which will act as President in the event of the incapacitation or resignation of the President.
