Location: The Coastal Discovery Museum at Honey Horn, Hilton Head Island, SC
Newest to the lineup, the Motoring Midway, unique to the Motoring Festival, offers a mix of days past while showcasing the vehicles of today and the technologies of tomorrow. With exhibits ranging from historic motorcycles to the newest in automotive technology, the Midway is a dynamic, interactive "trip" through the past, present and future of powered vehicles. Plus, test drive the latest makes & models from our automotive sponsors.

Car Club Jamboree

Saturday, November 6 (9am – 4pm)

Location: The Coastal Discovery Museum at Honey Horn, Hilton Head Island, SC
With car clubs traveling from throughout the US to participate, the Car Club Jamboree offers an eclectic mix of over 150 cars covering the history of the automobile, from modern day's high performance muscle cars and hot rods to European sports cars. This year will feature car clubs that celebrate the beauty of Italian design featuring Marques such as Ferrari, Lamborghini, Alfa Romeo and Fiat.

Concours d'Elegance

Sunday, November 7 (9am – 4pm)

Location: The Coastal Discovery Museum at Honey Horn, Hilton Head Island, SC
Falling each year on the first Sunday of November, the Concours d'Elegance, the centerpiece of the Motoring Festival, showcases 150 vintage vehicles, many of the finest in the world. Lining the fields of Honey Horn, a historic Southern plantation, under the spreading oaks and flowing Spanish Moss characteristic of the South Carolina Lowcountry, these historic vehicles, compete for the coveted title of 'Best of Show.' Past Honorary Chairmen include such noted figures as Bobby Rahal, Patricia Mooradian (President of The Henry Ford), J.W. (Bill) Marriott, Jr. and Nicola Bulgari. The ninth annual event will showcase Chevrolet as the 2010 Honored Marque.
